About Magic Valley Repertory Theatre

Magic Valley Repertory Theatre is Idaho's busiest theatrical organization in the Magic Valley and among the busiest in Idaho. The Orpheum Theatre's live-in theatre group has taken on a wide variety of shows since its inception in 2015; from Cabaret to the Little Mermaid and so much more. Magic Valley Repertory Theatre founded the Local Playwright Series, which gives a vehicle to local stage writers to premier their works before a live audience. Additionally, "The Rep" also produces the 24-Hour Theatre Project twice a year, which brings 15 people together to create three original shows in 24 hours. We are excited to have you see our next show! Keep an eye on our social media for opportunities to audition for one of our upcoming shows. We're always excited to help grow our wonderful community of local performers.

Director's Note

Director's note - Special thanks to Brendan Rowlands, Tim Yenne, Tyler Jones, Jennifer Miller, Archer English, JR Clark, Clint Clark, Tristin Nelson, Jared Johnson, Stephanie Johnson, Alexandra Nelson, Calvin Vinson, Karter Prestin and to everyone at the Orpheum Theatre. If I have forgotten anyone, please accept my sincerest apology! Thanks to Brendan Rowlands for writing a very funny and heartwarming show - and for letting me direct it! Thanks to the incredible cast (Tim Yenne, Tyler Jones, Jennifer Miller, Archer English) for their talent, their dedication and for their patience! Program credits often identify a single person as being responsible for some aspect of a production. While this is not untrue, it does not tell the full story of community theatre. It is a true collaboration. The entire cast and crew has worked together on costumes, props, set design, staging, etc. While I always try to get it exactly right, it is almost impossible to correctly and properly credit each person for each contribution. That is the essence of community theatre. The most accurate credit we can provide is – this is our production and we created it together. Thank you for coming and for being a part of it!

There is NO video recording or photography allowed in the performance. Thank you for adhering to these rules.

He wishes to thank Larry Johnson and Brendan Rowlands for allowing him to take on this role, his fellow cast mates for their support and encouragement, and his friend Syd Havard for her dedication to helping him prepare. He is excited to be the first to bring "David" to "Life".

Thank you so much for reading this bio. Without you, the reader, there would be no one to read my bio. This bio informs you about the many roles I have been involved with like Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast, Major General Stanley in The Pirates of Penzance, and Rod in Avenue Q to name a few. Acting is one of the things in my life that has given me a sense of purpose and I thank everyone I have ever met for the chances they have given me. I have been with MVRT since September 2017 and I can say without a doubt that I have enjoyed every moment and I look forward to many more years.
